CITIZENS FAIL TO SECURE ORDER

Judge Moffitt Dénies Injunction in State Normal School

APPEAL MAY BE TAKEN

Matter Almost Certain to Come Up at Next Session of Legislature.

Roanoke, Va., August 21.—Judge W W. Moffitt, of the Circuit Court of Roaneke and Montgomery, denied the petition of eight citizens of the West Ward of the city of Radford for an injunction to restrain the Finance Committee of the City Council from paying over to the board of trustees of the State Normal School, to be located at that place, $20,000 derived from the sale of bonds for the purchase of the "Heth" site, and further to restrain the board from accepting the money.

the money.

Judge Moffitt rendered his decision

the money.

Judge Moffitt rendered his decision in the presence of the attorneys representing both sides in the injunction pieceedings and informed them that in his opinion the board of trustees is a legally constituted body, that according to the act of the Legislatury the members of the board had the power to use their discretion as to the selection of a site, and, furthermore, that the plaintiff had no legal grounds for an injunction in the matter, and that he would deny the pelitition.

It is said that Lawyers Jordan and Longley and J. C. Wysor, representing the citizens, who were denied the injunction, will take the case to the Court of Appeals

In such cases application for an injunction can be made to any one of the judges of the State's highest tribunal. When the case is taken before this court the records in the proceedings before Judge Moffitt must be presented with the bill.

The controversy which has arisen between the two factions in the city of Radford concerning the location of the site may leave a bad taste in the mouth of, the members of the Legislature, and by some it is feared that the body may fail to make the appropriation for the building. The incerprisation for the building. The incerprisation for the building. The incerprisation available now, and the next Legislature will make the appropriation for the building. The incerprisation for the building of the incertain that the Radford normal matter will come up in some shape when the General Assembly uncets in 1912.

While this feeling is exhibited by persons familiar with the case, other are of the opinion that the board of trustees has become much disastisfied with the way in which the citizens have acted, that is those in the West Ward of the city, and it is said by some that the trustees will stick to Radford and will do all in their power to have the school located there as originally planned, and furthermore they will stick to the "Heth" site as the proper location.

Remarkable Gathering in Durham in Which Not a Word Is Spoken.

in Which Not a Word

Is Spoken.

Durham, N. C., August 27.—A remarkable convention is now in session in Durham and has been since Thursday at 3 o'clock. It is the second blennial convention of the North Carolina Association of the Deaf and Dumb. They are having speeches and a good time, and not a word is spoken. The meetings are presided over by D. R. Tillinghast, who is president of the Association. They were welcomed to the city by Mayor W. J. Griswold, and the annual address was delivered by Associate Justice J. S. Manning. The fittendance is about 175, from all parts of the State. Between their business pessions they are given trolley rides and receptions, and everything is done to make their stay in Durham pleasant, and they are enjoying it to the fullest extent.

The sossions are being held in the principle of St. Philip's Church, as a large number of the mutes in Durham are connected with this church, and hold their social meetings at the parish house of this church.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the mute marriage in St. Philip's Church, Thursday evening of Miss. Ella. Frances Smith, of Francisco, N. C., and Tyre Walker, of Durham. The coremony was performed by the rector, Rev. S. Bost, assisted by Rev. J. A. Tillinghast in the sign language, who was interpreted to the couple.

Editor J. A. Robinson was usher for the couple, and Mrs. J. M. Manning played several beautiful selections before the wedding march for the edilization of a large assembly. The couple was attended by the following mute couples, who preceded them to the altar: Miss Elizabeth Buchnor, of Sier City, and Robert Woodell; Miss Leona McCall and Leonard King, of Charlotte, Miss Nelle. Knotts, of Pee Dee, and Walter McConnick; the maid of honor and best man, Miss Jessie Tillyou and Keily Biggerstaff, of Elmsboro, N. C. The following officers were elected; President, R. S. Taylor; Vice-President, R. Taylor; Vice-President
